

ZOOM-A-PALOOZA —2022—

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY
ARTS, HUMANITIES,
& SOCIAL SCIENCES
HARROGATE, TN

MARCH 28 - APRIL 1, 2022
EVENT PROGRAM

The Lincoln Memorial University
School of Arts, Humanities, & Social Sciences Events Committee
proudly presents

LMU Zoom-a-Palooza 2022

A Zoom-based speaker series featuring presentations from experts in Political Science, Public Administration, International Relations,
Nonprofit Management, Criminal Justice, Psychology, and Religious Studies.

To participate in this event, please use the following Zoom link:

<https://lmu.zoom.us/j/82940520666>

For more information about the event, please visit:

<https://www.lmunet.edu/school-of-arts-humanities-and-social-sciences/events>

Dean, LMU School of Arts, Humanities, & Social Sciences

Martin Sellers

AHSS Events Committee

Abigail Heiniger

Michael Toomey

Charlie Gee

Stephen Adkins

Kristy Lee

Savannah Campbell

Event Coordinators

Stephen Adkins

Laura Gambrel

Special Thanks

J. Anita Black

Edward Asbury

Sonsirez Robles

Richard Pacelle

Hesper Adkins

Mason Huddleston

ZOOM-A-PALOOZA —2022—

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

ARTS, HUMANITIES,
& SOCIAL SCIENCES
HARROGATE, TN

MONDAY, MARCH 28, 2022

09:00-09:30 AM - Welcome Speaker
Martin Sellers, Lincoln Memorial University

09:45-10:45 AM - Psychology
Alison Attrill-Smith, University of Wolverhampton (UK)
"Psyching Out the Perps: A Case for More Psychological Input into Understanding Cybercrime"

11:00-12:00 PM - Criminal Justice
Ronda Engstrom, Davis and Elkins College
"The Foster Care-to-Prison Pipeline: Implications for Policy and Practice"

01:30-02:30 PM - Political Science / International Relations
Simon Rotzer, University of Tennessee
"Compelling Volunteerism? - Conscription in the 21st Century"

02:45-03:45 PM - Political Science / Public Administration
Daniel Hummel, University of Louisiana, Monroe
"Religiosity: Emphasizing Public Service"

04:00-05:00 PM - Political Science / Public Administration
John Grove, Law & Liberty Magazine
"Faith, Skepticism, and the Crackup of Left and Right"

ZOOM-A-PALOOZA —2022—

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

ARTS, HUMANITIES,
& SOCIAL SCIENCES
HARROGATE, TN

TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 2022

09:00-09:30 AM - Welcome Speaker
Stephen M. Adkins, Lincoln Memorial University

09:45-10:45 AM - Law
Rachel Karlin, Bonano Law Firm
*"Current Immigration Law and Policy:
If You Think it Makes Sense, You're Probably Wrong!"*

11:00-12:00 PM - Political Science / Public Administration
Logan M. Engle, City of Elizabethton, Tennessee
"City Planning in Rural Appalachia"

01:30-02:30 PM - Psychology
Christy Cowan, Western Governors University
"Is Positive Psychology Really That Positive?"

02:45-03:45 PM - Political Science / Public Administration
Fred Gordon, East Tennessee State University
"Tracking the Federal Government's Efforts to Promote Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion"

04:00-05:00 PM - Psychology
Edward Asbury, Lincoln Memorial University
"Online Platforms as Mechanisms of Social Support"

ZOOM-A-PALOOZA —2022—

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

ARTS, HUMANITIES,
& SOCIAL SCIENCES
HARROGATE, TN

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 2022

09:00-09:30 AM - Welcome Speaker
J. Anita Black, Lincoln Memorial University

09:45-10:45 AM - Law
Russell Fowler, Legal Aid of East Tennessee
"Toward a More Perfect Union: Development of Constitutionalism"

11:00-12:00 PM - Psychology
Walter Isaac, Georgia College & State University
"Learning in the Lab"

01:30-02:30 PM - Political Science / Public Administration
Brendan Kelley, Chamber of Commerce, Gratiot, Michigan
"Supporting a Rural Economy: Reflections of a Chamber of Commerce Professional"

02:45-03:45 PM - Criminal Justice
Sam Hinson, Sevierville Police Department, Sevierville, Tennessee
"The Opioid Epidemic from a Local Law Enforcement Perspective"

04:00-05:00 PM - Political Science / International Relations
Erin Rowland Carlin, Eastern Illinois University
"Perspectives on the Ongoing Crisis in Ukraine"

ZOOM-A-PALOOZA —2022—

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

ARTS, HUMANITIES,
& SOCIAL SCIENCES
HARROGATE, TN

THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 2022

09:00-09:30 AM - Welcome Speaker

Edward Asbury, Lincoln Memorial University

09:45-10:45 AM - Criminal Justice

David M. Bukowski, Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI)

"An Introduction to the FBI"

11:00-12:00 PM - Religious Studies / Communications

Chandler Vinson, Koine Consultants

"Plucked from the Headlines: How Jesus Consumed the News"

01:30-02:30 PM - Political Science / International Relations

Arjun Banerjee, University of Tennessee

"Leader Type and Responses to State-Sponsored Terrorism: A Case Study of India"

02:45-03:45 PM - Political Science / Public Administration

Patience Melnik, City of Knoxville, Tennessee

"Knoxville's Waste and Resources: What is Going Where and Why?"

04:00-05:00 PM - Criminal Justice

LaSha' Woodward, Helen Ross McNabb Center

"Jail to Work: Helping Female Offenders Re-enter the Community"

ZOOM-A-PALOOZA —2022—

LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

ARTS, HUMANITIES,
& SOCIAL SCIENCES
HARROGATE, TN

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 2022

09:00-09:30 AM - Welcome Speaker
Stephen M. Adkins, Lincoln Memorial University

09:45-10:45 AM - Political Science / International Relations
Justin Rose, University of Tennessee
"Negative Echo-Chambers: How Political Social Media Use Affects Partisanship, Candidate Evaluations, and Anger"

11:00-12:00 PM - Psychology
Chris Fullwood, University of Wolverhampton (UK)
"Do Avatar Characteristics Change User Behaviour? Exploring In-game and Real-life Effects in Autistic and Neurotypical Participants"

01:30-02:30 PM - Public Administration / Nonprofit Management
T. Ryan Hughes, Tennessee Alliance of Boys & Girls Clubs
"The Impact and Response of Boys & Girls Clubs to the COVID-19 Pandemic"

02:45-03:45 PM - Psychology
Melinda Moore, Eastern Kentucky University
"Fruits of Trauma: Posttraumatic Growth After Suicide"

04:00-05:00 PM - Criminal Justice
Santina Busch, Helen Ross McNabb Center
"Substance Abuse in the Criminal Justice System and HIV Criminalization"