

News from the Caylor School of Nursing

Upcoming Presentations

Several faculty members in the Caylor School of Nursing have presentations scheduled in the next few months. Vice President of Extended Sites, Dean and Instructor of Nursing, Mary Anne Modrcin, Instructor of Nursing, Janice Floyd, Clinical Staff, Logan McCarthy and Director of Family Psychiatric & Mental Health Nurse Practitioner Concentration and Professor of Nursing, Lisa Pullen will be sharing their expertise with poster and oral presentations.

Floyd, J. and Modrcin, M.A. One best practice: Dedicated Education Units to maximize student clinical engagement. Accepted for poster presentation at the DEU Symposium - DEU Innovations: Leaning Today for Tomorrow's DEU. Portland, OR. (July 13, 2018).

Floyd, J. and Modrcin, M.A. One best practice: Dedicated Education Units to maximize student clinical engagement. Accepted for poster presentation at the 2018 Eleventh National Doctors of Nursing Practice Conference: Palm Springs. Palm Springs, CA. (September 27-29, 2018).

McCarthy, L. and Pullen, L. Risk Factors Leading to Increased Rehospitalization Rates among Adolescents Admitted to an Acute Care Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Hospital. Accepted for oral presentation at the APNA 32nd Annual Conference. Columbus, OH. (October 24-27, 2018).

News from the Paul V. Hamilton School of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Assistant Professor of Visual Art and Program Director, Brandon Lutterman's piece, All Eyes Are On You was selected for inclusion in the Indianapolis Art Center's 2018 Art From The Heartland Exhibition. The art in this exhibition will be on display until August 8, 2018. Congratulations!

Adjunct Instructor of English, Denton Loving, recently had two poems published. "Balefire" was published in The Coe Review, and "The Water-Carrier's Prayer" was published in New Verse News. Another poem, "Riding Lawn Mower," is forthcoming in Heartwood Literary Journal. Another poem, "Roots" was selected by the Visible Poetry Project where filmmaker Kevin Hillman produced a short film based on the poem. Loving also has a short story, "Fiddlers" forthcoming in the literary journal Sliver of Stone.

Dr. Ted Booth

Director of Academic Support and Instructor of History and Religion, Dr. Ted Booth recently had the article, “Trapped by His Hermeneutic: An Apocalyptic Defense of Slavery” published in the Journal of Anglican and Episcopal History, Vol. 87, No. 2 (June 2018). The article explores the theological justification of American Slavery by Confederate Bishop Stephen Elliott.

Dr. Booth is currently doing a book review on Daring Dynasty: Custom, Conflict and Control in Early Modern England, which was solicited by the sixteenth Century Journal.

News from Student Support Services

The Lincoln Memorial University Student Support Services program hosted its annual awards/graduation program on April 25, 2018. Graduating peer tutors and SSS students were recognized at this time as well as three special awards. Jackie Ellis, a freshman nursing major, was presented with the Outstanding Freshman Award for showing great academic excellence and promise. Jackie is from Ewing, VA and is a 2017 graduate from Thomas Walker High School. Rachel Linden from Sneedville, TN received the Achievement Award for showing an increase in academic performance. Rachel is a Social Work major and will be graduating in May. Cheyenne Luther from Limestone, TN, received the Outstanding Student Award for having a high grade point average with regards to course load difficulty. Cheyenne is a Social Work major and will be graduating in May. Students and staff enjoyed barbeque, cake and refreshments to celebrate the students' accomplishments.

Jackie Ellis

Rachel Linden

Cheyenne Luther

Recent Submissions and Awards

Submissions:

Dr. Gilbert Patterson submitted a proposal to Purdue University for "This Is How We Role" program.

Dr. Jason Johnson submitted a proposal to Boehringer Ingelheim Veterinary Scholars Program.

Ms. Bethany Coke submitted a proposal to Appalachian College Association for a Lego STEM Event Grant.

Dr. Jason Johnson submitted two Partnerships for Opportunity and Workforce and Economic Revitalization (POWER) Initiative Grants to the United States Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Regina Burns submitted three grants to Wal-Mart on behalf of TheCORE program.

The College of Veterinary Medicine submitted three National Institute of Food and Agriculture grants for the Veterinary Services Grant Program.

Dr. Vinayak Nahar submitted a proposal to the United States Department of Agriculture for the Higher Education Challenge Grant in conjunction with the University of Arkansas.

DCOM submitted a proposal to HRSA for the Health Careers Opportunity Program.

Dr. Jamie Perkins submitted a proposal to Morris Animal Foundation.

Dr. Syed Quadri submitted a proposal to the American Heart Association.

Mr. Michael Neff submitted 2 grants proposals to Wal-Mart for a Math Summer Bridge Program.

Awards:

Dr. Mary Anne Modrcin received a HRSA Advanced Nurse Anesthesia Traineeship (NAT) Grant. LMU-NAT for Rural Appalachia.

Dr. Adam Gromley was awarded a grant from the East Tennessee Foundation Butterfly Fund to support, "Identifying the role of centriolin in rhabdomyosarcoma development and potential future therapies."

Dr. Jason Johnson was awarded a grant from the Boehringer Ingelheim Veterinary Scholars Program.

Dr. Jamie Perkins received a grant from Morris Animal Foundation.

Ms. Bethany Coke received a grant from ACA for the Lego STEM Grant.

Contact information for grants:

Marca Cenatiempo

Director, Health Sciences Research and Grants
DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine
marca.cenatiempo@lmunet.edu
(423) 869-6838

Carolyn Gulley

Executive Director, Office of Research, Grants and Sponsored Programs
Grant Lee 103
carolyn.gulley@lmunet.edu
(423) 869-6291

Kimberly Kertis

Research Specialist, Health Sciences
DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine
Kimberly.kertis@lmunet.edu
(423) 869-6441

Melissa Miracle

Post Award Grants Manager
Grant Lee 104
melissa.miracle02@lmunet.edu
(423) 869-6834

Reminder from the LMU Institutional Review Board (IRB)

Please remember that all research proposals and projects involving human subjects, must have IRB approval prior to the presentation of any information gathered during the course of the research.

Under federal policy, the IRB cannot grant retroactive IRB approval.

All applications for external funding must first begin by contacting the ORGSP.

If your grant award, application, presentation, or publication has not been mentioned in this edition, please forward your information to us using the contact information listed above. Thank you!

Institutional Animal and Care Use Committee (IACUC)

All research proposals and projects involving animals must have IACUC approval. Please have protocols submitted at least one week before the next scheduled meeting for committee review. Below is a schedule of upcoming IACUC meetings:

July 26, 2018
August 30, 2018
September 27, 2018
October 25, 2018