

Dr. Kevin W. Jennings, PhD

Associate Professor, Criminal Justice
Director, MSCJ Program

Biography

Dr. Kevin W. Jennings joined LMU in 2020, and is currently the director of the Master of Science Criminal Justice program (MSCJ). He has a BA in Anthropology, and a BS, MS, and PhD in Criminal Justice from Texas State University. His primary research areas are cybercrime, digital forensics, and police use of technology. He is a Certified Digital Forensics Examiner, Certified Network Forensics Examiner, and an Accessdata Certified Examiner. He has testified as an expert witness in the field of digital forensics, and has worked with the United States Department of Justice to help the academic community of the Philippines to create a course on cybercrime and digital forensics that is now required for all criminal justice majors in that country.

Teaching and Research Interests

Cybercrime, Digital Forensics, and Police Technology

Publications and Presentations (last five years)

Publications

Jennings, K. (2024). A Review of A Comprehensive History of American Law Enforcement. Tactical Edge. (Forthcoming).

Jennings, K. & Balas, M. (2021). Twenty First Century Digital Forensics: New Patterns in Evidence Analysis. Philippine Criminology Journal, 1(2), 1-10.

Jennings, K. (2020). Chapter 6: Equipment. In The Management of Police Specialized Tactical Units by Tomas Mijares and Ronald McCarthy. Charles C Thomas Publisher, Ltd.

Presentations

Jennings, K. (2023, November). Cybercrime Investigations in the 21st Century. Presented at the International Integrated Research Conference, Manilla, The Philippines (Online).

Jennings, K. & DuVall, S. (2023, September). Victimology: Victimization in the 21st Century. Cagayan State University. Online.

Jennings, K. (2022, September). Cybercrime in a Healthcare Context. Presented at The International Conference of Law, Economy, and Health, Jakarta, Indonesia (Online).

Jennings, K. (2022, August). Cybercrime and Tourism. Presented at The Conference on Law and Digital Tourism, Jakarta, Indonesia (Online).

Jennings, K. (2020, October). Open Source Digital Forensics Tools. Presented at the International Integrated Research Conference, Manilla, The Philippines (Online).