

Dr. Charlie Gee is an Assistant Professor in Media Communication with a background in radio and television news. His background has taken him to Eastern Europe to conduct workshops. He is also an award winning journalist and documentary filmmaker. Dr. Gee teaches applied theory courses such as multiple/single camera production, video editing, Intro to Film and Television News.