

Dr. Debra A. Salata

Debra A. Salata is Associate Professor of History and History Program Director at Lincoln Memorial University. She received her M.A. degree from Northern Illinois University in Ancient and Medieval History and her Ph.D. in Medieval History with comparative areas in Ancient and Early Modern History from the University of Minnesota. Her area of specialization is late-medieval economic, legal, and social history of southern France and the Mediterranean area. She is serving as the President of the Fourteenth-Century Society from 2016 to 2018, having served as the Vice-President of that society from 2014 to 2016. She has also served as a member of an international coalition of consultants on a project entitled Monastic Mapping for the Rare Book and Special Collection Department, Western Michigan University from 2013 to 2015, and as a member of the Advisory Board of Medieval Manuscripts, for the Rare Book and Special Collection Department, Western Michigan University from 2009 to 2010. In addition to having presented more than a dozen conference papers, she co-authored a book with Dr. Kathryn L. Reyerson, entitled Medieval Notaries and Their Acts: The 1327-1328 Register of Jean Holanie, published by TEAMS, Documents of Practice Series, Medieval Institute Publications in 2004. Dr. Salata teaches the world history surveys, various upper-level courses in ancient and medieval history, and directed-study courses in Latin at Lincoln Memorial University.